

GMB Southern Race Network Anti-Racism Resources

#BlackLivesMatter

This is a list of educational resources compiled by the GMB Southern Race Network.

This document is intended to serve as a resource for members who aren't sure where to start in educating themselves about racism and how to be anti-racist. We know many GMB members are keen to learn more especially in the light of the increased visibility of the recent Black Lives Matter movement around the world.

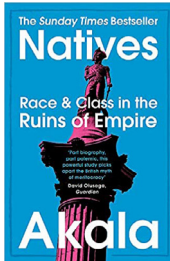

If you are a GMB rep in your workplace you can attend the union's equality course. The GMB Southern Race Network (SRN) is planning more education and training opportunities for GMB members on the issue of racism and being anti-racist - watch this space!

GMB do not endorse or support every argument included in each item or everything said by people who produced or wrote these resources.
